COMMUNICATED.

On Wednesday, April 29, at the family home near here, occurred the death of Mrs. James Cross. The lady, whose maiden name was Matilda E. Allison, was born at Monroe, Sept. 14, 1854. She was united in marriage to James Cross, of Augdensburg, N. Y., Sept. 14, 1870. To this happy union was born seven children, the youngest, a son, who preceded his mother to the Great Beyond several years ago. She leaves to mourn her death, besides her husband, five sons, a daughter, and four sisters, all of whom were present at her funeral except one son and a sister.

A tender, loving wife, a fond and devoted mother, a true friend, her family and friends will always remember her. She was a patient sufferer, whose illness dated back some years ago. Some weeks ago she left for La Crosse, hoping the change would better her condition, but her health failed rapidly during the latter part of her visit and she only reached home the day preceding her death. Mrs. Cross was a member of the Bloomville Ladies' Aid society and of Riverside camp, Royal Neighbors of America, of which she was a charter member. She was laid to rest in the cemetery at Merrill, the members of Riverside camp having charge of the services at the home and Rev. J. S. Wilson officiating at the Presbyterian church. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Those from out of town who attended the funeral were her sons, James and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Cross, of La Crosse; Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cross, of Portage; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cross, of Fond du Lac, and her sisters, Mrs. M. H. Shackley and Mrs. John Grimes, of Milwaukee, and Mrs. E. J. Brown and daughter, of La Crosse.

All work called for and delivered. Savinsky's Dye House. Phone 49—Adv. 50 11. Thomas H. Ryan of Wausau is in the city today.
