

have been seven brand new arrivals in that quarter of the city.

St. Francis church is now being veneered with brick and when finished will be one of the finest appearing edifices of its kind in this section.

Misses Lily Clancy and Belle Kline enjoyed themselves at Minocqua from Sunday until Tuesday. They brought down a 45-pound muskellunge which was caught by Miss Clancy—so we are informed.

Angus McDonald, one of the best pine land hunters along the Wisconsin, was in town for a few hours last Friday.

Moses Poirier has had the old sidewalk in front of the Merrill House torn up and a fine wide one laid in its place.

A midnight prowler at the residence of Mrs. M. E. Stewart last Thursday evening was induced to make a beeline off the premises by that lady, who fired several shots at him with a revolver.

Jed Coon of the Tomahawk Blade is an enterprising, young man, desirous of increasing Tomahawk's population by advertising and otherwise. He now boasts of twins at his home.

A party of gay "West Siders" spent a pleasant evening up at Hathaway's swing Monday evening.

The new road between Harrison and Parish is nearly completed.

At the regular meeting of the council held last Monday evening the usual number of bills were allowed.

The resignation of Chief Shape was accepted. . . . A report of the city treasurer showed a balance, belonging to all funds, of $800.06. . . . The report of the committee appointed to canvass the vote of the special election, held Aug. 6, showed that 52 votes had been cast, all of which were in favor of establishing and maintaining a free library. The question of adopting a system of street lighting was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2 and the committee was instructed to advertise for bids for lighting the same with electricity. Permission was granted to build a sewer along Center avenue to connect with the one to be built on Main street.

There will be an excursion from Wausau to Merrill next Sunday.

Nearer home are to found the ravages of the deadly ice cream. On Sunday evening last, a Merrill youth, bold and reckless, essayed to wrestle with the cool but dangerous dyspepsia-producing conglomeration of cows' milk, corn starch, sugar, and coolness. After one round, the bold youth of Merrill was vanquished and doubled up like a jack knife.

Theo. Calder, for many years chief of police for the city of Merrill.

Albert Klotzschmidt, logger and farmer and former town and county official, still resides on his farm in the town of Scott.
